

Dr Doris George Yohannan

- Featured on the COVER of Anatomical Sciences Education (Vol.15, Issue 3 – May/June issue, 2022) Impact factor:6.6, 2020 Journal Citation Reports (Clarivate Analytics): 3/45 (Education, Scientific Disciplines)
- Member of Global Neuroanatomy Network (GNN) team which received the American Association of Anatomy innovation grant (Link)
- Featured in American Association of Anatomy’s “Faces of Anatomy”.
- Recipient of ‘International Travel Support’ travel grant award for young scientists by the Science & Engineering Research Board (SERB), Government of India, to attend the 19th Annual Course: Neuroradiology & Functional Neuroanatomy, University College London (UCL), United Kingdom (March, 2019)
- University 1st Rank for MD Anatomy examination, May 2014 at the Kerala University of Health Sciences
- Dr. Saramma Joseph memorial award for the best paper presented by a post graduate student, during the State conference and CME of the Kerala Chapter of the Anatomical Society of India, Sree Gokulam Medical College, Trivandrum, 2014. Angle between the optic nerves and its significance
- Best Poster award for Silver Jubilee State conference and CME of the Kerala Chapter of the Anatomical Society of India, Trivandrum Medical College, 2013. Bifurcation of the axillary artery– a rare case report